ARCADIA, Duchesne County
— Dates scheduled for consideration of requests for federal cost-sharing projects here through the 1965 Agricultural Conservation Program have been scheduled for September and October.

Wanless Shields, Arcadia, chairman of the county ACP, states that a portion of the 1965 county allocation of $61,000 has been made available for approval of conservation practices to be performed this fall.

Dates scheduled for consideration are Sept. 8, and Oct. 6 and 27. Mr. Shields said that the program will provide, for the most part, the same rates of cost-sharing and specifications as available under the 1964 Agricultural Conservation Program.

Requests for cost-sharing for conservation practices to be performed during the fall months may be filed at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Office, Roosevelt.

PROVO — Mrs. Mary Cameron Norton will celebrate her 85th birthday anniversary Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. with an open house at the home of a son, J. Riley Norton, 68 South University Ave. in Provo.

Mrs. Norton was born Aug.
28, 1879, at Panguitch, a daughter of Jonathan and Francis Cooper Cameron. She was married to John Riley Norton Oct.
18, 1899, at Panguitch. The marriage later was solemnized in the St. George Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Mr. Norton died in 1957.
They had made their home in Circleville since 1906.

A lifelong member of the Church Mrs. Norton has been active in the Relief Society.

Mrs. Norton is the mother of six living sons and daughters, John Riley, Provo; James Carl, Springville; Clifford Ray, Ore-ville, Calif.; Mrs. Eva Dalton,

William Cameron and Mrs. S-die Lewis, all Circleville. She also reared three foster children, Robert Cameron and Howard Norton, both Salt Lake City, and the late Grant Norton.
She also has 27 grandchildren and 85 great-grandchildren.
